

Milt Hinton

1990 Calendar

Milt Hinton not only had a passion for music, he loved to share his life experiences through pictures. Aetna's 1990 calendar features the photographs of the great musicians who influenced Milt Hinton, such as Cab Calloway, Dizzy Gillespie, Louis Armstrong and Eubie Blake.

In the introduction, Milt wrote: "I am grateful for the opportunity to tell people about my experiences, and to use my photographs to show some of the individuals who had an important influence on my life. I'm almost 80 now and I haven't stopped learning. Setting goals -- large ones and small ones -- and trying to achieve them is still the most important part of my life."
